MEMBERSHIP

Please note that our Memorandum & Articles of Association a Member may terminate membership by giving notice in writing at least three months before the day when his subscription shall next be due. If no such notice is received the Member shall be liable for the subscription for the ensuing year which shall be a debt due to and legally recoverable by the Chamber.

Cancellation of membership needs to be in writing, either by letter or email. We will write to you to confirm that we have cancelled your membership as per your request.

Members may cancel their subscription to a product, service or membership at any time but may not be eligible for a refund of fees already paid. Alternatively, members can lapse their subscription at the point of renewal but will not be eligible for a refund of fees already paid.

Ceasing your membership will also stop access to products and services that are received through being an Ayrshire Chamber member.

If you pay your subscription by Direct Debit payments the Direct Debit instruction will be cancelled for the next payment. Please note that if you cancel your Direct Debit instruction this will automatically lapse or cancel your membership. It is therefore important that you contact Ayrshire Chamber as soon as possible.

In the event of you wishing to cease your membership we will require payment of any arrears that may be due from you at the time following which you will have no further obligations.

Ayrshire Chamber reserves the right to alter, amend, change, modify or withdraw any of the membership categories at any time and without prior notice.
