Share your story

DYW Ayrshire are running a campaign supported by our host organisation, Ayrshire Chamber of Commerce, that highlights the benefits of the school work experience programme to employers, educators and young people.

This year, the campaign will run from Monday 4th - Friday 8th December. We will use the hashtag #WorkExperienceWeek to share stories and experiences on social media which promote, illustrate and celebrate the school work experience programme.

The campaign will provide real life examples from employers, teachers and pupils and allow you to understand the programme, share your good news story, see the benefits and encourage employers to get involved. Tell us what the programme means to you, how it benefits your business, how it helps a young person find their path and why you would recommend other employers get involved!

Campaign Aims

- Encourage more employers to get involved in the programme
- Highlight the benefits to a business of hosting a placement
- Provide real examples and stories from those in industry and education
- Celebrate the school work experience programme
- Highlight Ayrshire employers who support schools/ pupils in offering placements and learning for our future workforce

Get Involved

We have reached out to schools and businesses across Ayrshire to encourage them to get involved and support with the promotion of Work Experience Week.

Spread the word using the resources provided, use your communications channels to promote the campaign to employers, teachers and young people.

This could be by posting on social media, website, news page etc. to create a powerful campaign. Tag us on anything you post on social media!

For anyone looking to support the programme, please contact:
